B. Scoring

Experience Credit: You will receive 0.2 points for each month of creditable experience/service as a Correction Officer. One month equals 16 or more workdays or 172 hours. Part-time work experience will be prorated on the basis of a 40-hour workweek.

If you receive Experience Credit, as described in the preceding paragraph, your Experience Credit will be added to your Written Examination Score to get your Experience Score. Your Experience Score will count as 10% of your overall mark, and your Written Examination Score will count as 90% of your overall mark. If you do not qualify for an Experience Score, your overall score will be based on your Written Examination Score alone.

EXAMPLE: A candidate, with a Written Examination Score of 80%, has 5 years (60 months) of creditable experience in the examination title. The Experience Credit is calculated by multiplying the number of months times .20 points per month. ($60 \times .20 = 12.0$) The Experience Credit of 12.0 points is then added to the Written Examination score of 80% to get an Experience Score of 92%. The Experience Score of 92% counts as 10% of the overall mark, and the Written Examination Score counts as 90% of the overall mark. In this case, the overall mark is calculated as follows:

- | | |
|--|------------------------|
| A. Multiply the Written Examination Score by .90: | $80 \times .90 = 72.0$ |
| B. Multiply the Experience score by .10: | $12 \times .10 = 1.2$ |
| C. Add the results from A. and B. to get the overall mark | $72 + 1.2 = 73.2$ |
| D. Round the overall mark from D. to the nearest whole number: | 73% |

C. EXPERIENCE SCORE APPEALS

Experience Scores will only be calculated for individuals who achieve a passing score on the written examination. Experience credit cannot be added to a failing written score in an attempt to achieve an overall passing score. Written scores cannot be appealed.

If you believe that your experience score has been calculated incorrectly, you have the opportunity to appeal the experience score only. When you receive your examination score, carefully read the instructions that will be noted on the page including your score. All appeals must be filed in writing; no appeal telephone calls will be accepted. No new information can be submitted on appeal; only clarifying information relative to the experience you originally claimed can be considered during the appeal process. Please address any questions to: Test Administration, Massachusetts Human Resources Division, One Ashburton Place, Room 301, Boston, MA 02108-1552, Telephone: (617) 727-3777
